DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • KEN TYLER

Ken Tyler is in his second year as Director of Athletics at West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Tyler is one of the youngest Director of Athletics in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. He arrives at Wesleyan after a seven-year stay at Shepherd University where he served as head men's basketball coach. Tyler also held the position of Assistant Athletic Director for the past six years.

Tyler inherited a Wesleyan athletic program that won the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's Presidents' and Commissioner's Cup's that are awarded for all-around athletic excellence among its member schools. In his first year, Wesleyan successfully defended their ownership of the Presidents' and Commissioner's Cup's by winning league championships in seven sports -- men's and women's cross country, women's soccer, men's and women's track and field, men's tennis, and softball.

Prior to his tenure at Shepherd, Tyler spent six years at Albright (PA) College, serving as head men's basketball coach and Assistant Director of Athletics. He also had one-year stints as assistant men's basketball coach at James Madison University under Lefty Driesell, Roanoke (VA) College, and East Stroudsburg (PA) University.

During his six year career at Albright, Tyler compiled a record of 87-64. At Shepherd, he went 106-93 for an overall career record of 193-157. In the seven years prior to Tyler's arrival, Shepherd won a total of 72 games, marking a 34 game improvement under his direction. He led Shepherd to back-to-back winning seasons in 2006/07-2007/08 for the first time since 1992/93-1993-94. Academically, his teams had a 95% graduation rate for seniors.

As the Assistant Director of Athletics at Shepherd and Albright, Tyler spearheaded a $300,000 campaign to renovate the Butcher Athletic Center at Shepherd and a $500,000 renovation to the Bollman Center at Albright. Renovations included new seating (chairback), scoreboards, scorer's tables, lighting, sound systems, and flooring.

A native of Jefferson County, he earned a bachelor of arts in history in 1987 and his master's degree in 1989 from The College of William and Mary. He was also a guard on the basketball team at Division I William and Mary.

Off the court, Tyler has been an active member with the local United Way, serving as the chairman in the Eastern Panhandle from 2006-08, raising a total of $3.0 million. He is also an avid reader and a Civil War enthusiast. He and his wife Dawn have two children, son Jordan (11) and daughter Logan (8). Dawn is a member of the Education faculty at Wesleyan.

Since Tyler's arrival at Wesleyan, the Athletic Department has remodeled and upgraded the office area, re-surfaced the main arena floor, launched a new web site, hired a new head football coach, and drafted Bobcat Renaissance, a comprehensive strategic plan for athletics.

HEAD COACH • DENNIS CREEHAN

Dennis Creehan began his coaching career in 1971 as defensive coordinator at Keystone Oaks High School in his hometown of Pittsburgh. He joined the University of Pittsburgh's staff in 1974 as a graduate assistant under head coach Johnny Majors.

In 1975, Creehan served as offensive coordinator at Carnegie-Mellon University (D-III) before joining the staff at his alma mater, Edinboro University in 1976 as defensive coordinator. In 1979, he took over as head coach, posting a 39-20-1 record in six seasons while capturing league titles in 1982 and 1984.

He left Edinboro for the Canadian Football League in 1985 as a special teams coach with the Edmonton Eskimos, a position he held for two seasons and again in 1991.

The Eskimos won the Western Division Championship in 1986. Between stints with the Eskimos, Creehan served two seasons as head coach of San Francisco State (D-II) and three seasons as special teams/linebacker coach at the University of California.

In 1992, he became the head coach at the University of South Dakota where he inherited a one-win program and improved them to an 8-3 season in four years. He was named the 1993 North Central Conference Coach of the Year. At South Dakota, he coached future New England Patriots and three-time Super Bowl winner Matt Chatham.

Creehan was also a member of several NCAA Division I staffs including stints at Army, Duke, Rutgers, and Arkansas State. As a defensive coordinator at Rutgers, a special teams coach at Duke, and linebacker coach at California, he coached future NFL players Wesley Robertson (Kansas City Chiefs), Dax Strohmeier (NY Jets), Ryan Fowler (Tennessee Titans), and Ken Harvey (Phoenix Cardinals).

Creehan spent four seasons from 2004-2007 as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator of the Calgary Stampeders installing an innovative 3-4 defensive scheme.

A high school graduate of Bethel Park in Western Pennsylvania, he was inducted into their Hall of Fame in 2000 and was inducted into Edinboro University's Hall of Fame in 2001. He is the author of five books and several published articles.

He and his wife, Linda, have two sons, Kevin and Casey.

WESLEYAN COACHING STAFF

Jonas Jackson
Assistant Head Coach

Jonas Jackson served as the defensive line coach at Illinois State of the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) prior to joining the Wesleyan staff. He was also the defensive coordinator at LaSalle in 2006-07, where his defense finished in the top ten in numerous statistical categories including tenth in total defense in 2006.

In addition to his time at Illinois State and LaSalle, Jackson was a defensive graduate assistant at Temple during the 2005-06 seasons as well as the head coach and defensive coordinator of the Elancout Templiers in the French Pro League in the spring of 2005.

Jackson's other coaching stops included three seasons as an assistant coach at Arizona Western College and Wagner College and as a graduate assistant coach at Valparaiso.

He was a two-year letter winner at Eastern Michigan, playing tight end and defensive line, where he graduated in 2002.

Jackson will coach the defensive line and hold the role of recruiting coordinator. His primary recruiting area will include Washington D.C., Baltimore, Virginia, South New Jersey and Philadelphia.

Luke Getsy comes to Wesleyan from the University of Akron, where he spent the previous two years coaching the quarterbacks. He signed with the University of Pittsburgh out of high school before transferring to Akron where he set or tied 24 school records while playing in 25 games at quarterback.

Getsy led the Zips to the 2005 Mid-American Championship, throwing a school-record 23 touchdowns that season. He threw for 3,455 yards, second-best on the Akron single-season chart, and completed a school record 278 passes. In 2006, Getsy threw for 2,662 yards, fourth on the Akron single-season list, and ended his career with 6,117 yards placing him third on the school's all-time passing list.

Following the completion of his college career, Getsy signed as a free agent with the San Francisco 49ers in 2007 where he lasted until the final cut prior to the season.

Getsy will serve as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and academic coordinator at Wesleyan. He will focus his recruiting efforts on the state of Pennsylvania.

Luke Getsy
Offensive Coordinator

Anthony Peluso
Strength and Conditioning

Anthony Peluso comes to Wesleyan from Edinboro University, where he worked as the offensive line and strength and conditioning coach for three seasons. During his time at Edinboro, the team led the conference in fewest sacks allowed while setting school records for passes attempted.

Peluso was a three-year starter at Edinboro, where he helped lead the team to its first NCAA Division II play-off appearance since 1995. A 2006 graduate, Peluso earned first team all-PSAC honors as well as second team Football Gazette All-Northeast and honorable mention D2Football.com All-American honors.

He also played professionally for three seasons as a member of the indoor Erie Freeze and the Erie RiverCats.

Peluso will coach the offensive line as well as oversee the strength and conditioning program at Wesleyan. His main recruiting area will be the state of Ohio.

WESLEYAN COACHING STAFF

Chance Varner
Graduate Assistant

Chance Varner returns as a second-year graduate to coach the running backs. The Washington, PA native graduated from Wesleyan in 2008 and is currently working on his Master's in Special Education.

Varner was a three-year starter at fullback and a four-year letter winner for the Bobcats. He averaged 4.2 yards per carry his senior season.

Varner will coach the running backs this year.

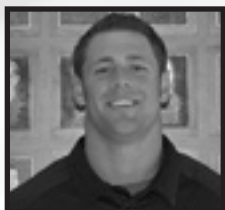

Before joining the Bobcat coaching staff, Kirk Campbell was a four-year member of the Mercyhurst Laker football program.

For his career, the Oakdale, PA native caught 23 passes, including 11 receptions for 169 yards and a score during his senior season.

Campbell, who graduated in 2008, will coach the wide receivers during his first season at Wesleyan.

Kirk Campbell
Graduate Assistant

Chris McKillop
Graduate Assistant

Chris McKillop was a four-year letterman in football at the University of Pittsburgh. During his career he was named Big East Defensive Player of the Week vs. Syracuse and Defensive Player of the Game against Youngstown State.

After graduating in 2007, McKillop signed as a free agent with the New York Jets.

A native of Export, PA, McKillop will assist with the linebackers and strength and conditioning as well as serving as the special teams coordinator.

Robert Hinton is entering his first year as an assistant coach at NCAA Division II level. Prior to coming to Wesleyan, he served as private coach to college and professional players.

A 2005 graduate of Glenville State, Hinton was a two-time team captain and a two-time defensive MVP. He was named All-WVIAC on three different occasions and led the WVIAC in tackles on two different seasons.

Hinton, who signed with the Colorado Crush of the AFL, will coach the defensive backs.

Robert Hinton
Graduate Assistant

2008 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1 SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT STATE AUGUST 30 (L 21-26; 0-1, 0-0)

The West Virginia Wesleyan Bobcats gave the 24th-ranked Southern Connecticut Owls all they could handle and more in the season opener at Cebe Ross Field. The Bobcats were looking for the upset, holding a 21-20 lead midway through the fourth quarter. The Owls, however, scored a late touchdown to spoil the Bobcats upset bid and left Buckhannon with a 26-21 victory.

Jarome Freeman opened the scoring for the Owls with an 80-yard touchdown dash with 2:07 left in the first quarter. Freeman struck again four minutes into the second quarter, this time on a two-yard plunge to extend the lead to 13-0. The Bobcats clawed their way back when Bryan Overton hauled in an 11-yard touchdown reception to cut the lead to 13-7 with 4:32 remaining in the half. The Owls answered with a five play, 42 yard scoring drive before Wesleyan struck back with a 45-yard touchdown pass from Harry Lorusso to William Schiefelbein to cut the Owls lead to 20-14 at half. The Bobcats opened the third quarter with a three-yard Matt Edwards touchdown to take a 21-20 lead to set up the heartbreaking finish.

GAME 2 AT VIRGINIA UNION SEPTEMBER 6 (L 14-35; 0-2, 0-0)

After nearly pulling off an upset against then #24 Southern Connecticut in week one, the Bobcat football team took to the road on the second week of the season in hopes of knocking off another quality opponent in Virginia Union. However, after keeping it close for during the first half, the Panthers of Virginia Union controlled the second half, pulling away for a 35-14 victory.

Enrique Cox and the Panthers got the game off to a quick start following a two-hour weather delay, taking the opening kick-off 95 yards for a touchdown to put Virginia Union on top 7-0. Wesleyan did not take long to strike back, driving 60-yards in six plays, capped by Jason Jackson's five-yard touchdown run to tie the score at 7-7, three minutes into the game. Virginia Union would regain the lead, 14-7, with two minutes remaining in the first quarter. The Bobcat offense answered the call, as Jackson scored his second touchdown of the night from two-yards out to tie the score again at 14-14. The Panthers, however, would tack on three unanswered touchdowns to pull away with a 35-14 victory.

GAME 3 CHARLESTON SEPTEMBER 13 (L 17-24; 0-3, 0-1)

Despite overcoming a slow start, the Bobcat football team came up short against the Golden Eagles of Charleston, falling 24-17. Wesleyan trailed 14-3 after one quarter of play but was able to pull to within 21-17 following a three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Zane Zebrasky to tight end William Schiefelbein with 7:23 remaining in the third quarter. Charleston would add on a 29 yard field goal by Wes Sherrill with 1:19 left in the third quarter to extend the lead to 24-17.

Defense dominated the fourth quarter with both teams going scoreless. The Bobcats had a chance to tie the score on their last series of the game, driving to the Golden Eagle 40 yard line before Charleston's Michael Denton sacked Zebrasky on fourth down to end any opportunities for a last minute comeback. Wesleyan finished the day with 315 yards of total offense. The Bobcat defense forced six fumbles but the only the Golden Eagle turnover came on a Chris Golder interception.

GAME 4 CONCORD SEPTEMBER 20 (W 31-26; 1-3, 1-1)

The Bobcat football team picked up their first victory of the season, holding off the Concord Mountain Lions in a thrilling finish. After falling behind 20-10 at the break, the Bobcats outscored the Mountain Lions 21-6 in the second half to pull out a 31-26 victory.

Wesleyan took their first lead of the game at 24-20 with 5:29 left in fourth quarter following a four-yard touchdown run by Jason Jackson. Concord responded on their ensuing possession, driving 60 yards on five plays to regain the lead 26-24 with 3:59 remaining. The Mountain Lions attempted to go for two following the touchdown but were stopped short. Chris Golder gave the Bobcats good field position on the ensuing kick-off, returning the ball to the Wesleyan 43-yard line. Quarterback Zane Zebrasky hit Emmanuel Burrell for 11 yards to the Concord 46 on the first play of the series. The Bobcats then turned to their ground attack, running the ball on their next nine plays. They capped off the drive with a game winning three-yard touchdown run by fullback Aaron Echard with 39 seconds left on the clock.

2008 GAME RECAPS

GAME 5 AT WEST LIBERTY SEPTEMBER 27 (L 0-46; 1-4, 1-2)

The Bobcat football team traveled to West Liberty hoping to build some momentum following their 31-26 win over Concord the previous week. Unfortunately for Wesleyan, former Virginia Tech Hokie Brandon Ore and the West Liberty State Hilltoppers had different plans, beating the Bobcats 46-0.

Wesleyan held tough in the first quarter, playing the Hilltoppers to a scoreless tie. The Bobcats kicked off the game with their longest drive of the day, moving the ball 39 yards in eight plays to the West Liberty 40-yard line before being forced to punt. The second quarter was a different story as West Liberty jumped out to a 20-0 lead at halftime and never looked back. Running back Reggie Taylor had another stand out day in the loss, leading the Bobcats ground attack with 101 yards rushing on 24 carries. Felipe Teixeira led the defensive effort with eight tackles, including one for loss. George Lewis also contributed with five tackles and forced the Bobcats only turnover of the day with his third quarter interception. Derek Moore had a solid day punting the football for the Bobcats, averaging 37.0 yards on six punts.

GAME 6 SETON HILL OCTOBER 4 (L 32-35; 1-5, 1-3)

Coming off a tough 46-0 loss to West Liberty and with injuries taking away some key players, it would have been easy for the Wesleyan to throw in the towel against unbeaten Seton Hill. Instead, the Bobcats tightened up their chinstraps and gutted out one of their finest performances of the season. Despite the resilient performance, the Bobcats came up just short, dropping a 35-32 decision to the Griffins in a game that featured several big plays.

Trailing, 28-18 in the third quarter Wesleyan went on a four-play drive that covered 66 yards and ended on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Harry Lorusso to William Schiefelbein to cut the Griffins lead to 28-25. Seton Hill picked off a Bobcat pass at the Wesleyan 20 to set up their next score two plays later to extend the lead to 35-25 with 7:35 to go. It took Wesleyan just one play to find the endzone on their next possession. Lorusso hit T. J. Benners for a 74-yard catch and run to close the gap to 35-32 with 7:35 remaining. Wesleyan had one more offensive series that started at their own 10 following a Seton Hill punt with 5:14 remaining, but were forced to punt the ball away after a three-and-out.

GAME 7 N.C. PEMBROKE OCTOBER 11 (L 14-36; 1-6, 1-3)

It just was not meant to be for Wesleyan in their homecoming encounter with the UNC-Pembroke Braves. The Bobcats fell behind early and were never able to recover, suffering a 36-14 setback. After putting up a season high 485 yards in a loss to Seton Hill, the Wesleyan offense managed only to grind out 205 against the Braves.

UNC-Pembroke struck first with 9:12 remaining in the first quarter when Cory Smith fired a 14-yard touchdown pass to Josh Humphries. Wesleyan's Matt Pursinkas barged in to block the extra point by Taylor Baskett, leaving the game at 6-0. The Braves would add two more scores for a 20-0 lead before Wesleyan finally broke onto the score board with an eight-play, 69-yard drive that Aaron Echard finished off with a two-yard plunge. Derek Moore's extra-point attempt was good to make the score 20-7. However, UNC-Pembroke snuck in a score right before the half when Smith threw his fourth touchdown pass of the first 30 minutes when he found L. J. Johnson for a nine-yard reception with 15 seconds remaining in the half to essentially put the game away at 26-7.

GAME 8 AT SHEPHERD OCTOBER 18 (L 12-27; 1-7, 1-4)

The Wesleyan football team hit the road looking to snap a four game losing streak. The Bobcats struck first and hung tough but could not come away with the victory, falling to the Shepherd Rams 27-12. The Wesleyan offense came out of the gate firing, taking their first drive of the day 70 yards for a touchdown. The 14-play drive, which consisted of 12 running plays, ate up 8:17 of the clock and was capped off by a one-yard sneak by quarterback Harry Lorusso. Derek Moore missed the extra point and Wesleyan held an early 6-0 advantage.

Shepherd answered on the ensuing possession as Michael Johnson went in from one-yard out to cap a 73-yard, 10-play drive to go ahead 7-6. A touchdown pass and a 32-yard field goal to give Shepherd a 17-6 lead at the break. After a third quarter field goal extended the Rams lead to 20-6, Lorusso made it a one possession game for the Bobcats with 14 minutes left in the game, plunging into the endzone from one-yard out for his second rushing touchdown of the day. That was as close as the Bobcats would get though as Shepherd stiffened up and added a late touchdown to preserve the win.

GAME 9 AT FAIRMONT STATE OCTOBER 25 (L 0-31; 1-0, 1-5)

It was a tough day for the West Virginia Wesleyan Bobcats in their encounter with the Fairmont State Falcons. After hanging close in the first half, Fairmont used a pair of big third quarter plays to stretch the lead and hold the pesky Bobcats at arms length.

Fairmont opened the scoring with a 41-yard field goal by Alex Ashley with 9:54 left in the first quarter. The Falcons scored again on a 76-yard pass play from Vick Bradford to Perry Baker with 18 seconds left in the first quarter. Wesleyan's defense held tough in the second quarter, keeping Fairmont off the scoreboard. However, the Bobcat offense failed to score as well, sending the game into the break with the Falcons ahead by a count of 10-0. Fairmont came out firing in the second half, as Bradford hit Travis Hawthorne with a 20-yard touchdown strike to wrap up their first drive of the half. The Falcons made it a 24-0 game when Zack Page returned a punt 59 yards with 6:24 remaining in the third quarter. A late fourth quarter touchdown ended any comeback hopes, as Wesleyan's offense was never able to get going.

GAME 10 GLENVILLE STATE NOVEMBER 1 (L 14-40; 1-9, 1-6)

The Bobcats ended their 2008 home campaign on a disappointing note afternoon with a 40-14 setback to Glenville State in a WVIAC contest. Wesleyan totaled 297 yards of offense gaining 204 through the air and 93 on the ground. Glenville State, meanwhile, piled up 546 yards of offense with 317 of it coming on the ground and 229 through the air.

The game turned sour early as Glenville State jumped out to a 40-0 lead before Wesleyan tallied two fourth-quarter touchdowns. Senior quarterback Harry Lorusso came of the bench to spark the Wesleyan offense in the fourth quarter throwing for 144 yards. He completed four of his six attempts. Junior tailback Reggie Taylor was again a bright spot for the Wesleyan offense gaining 98 yards on 23 carries. Wesleyan managed to get on the scoreboard when Emmanuell Burrell caught a 37-yard pass from Lorusso with 90 seconds gone in the fourth quarter. Derek Moore was true with his kick to make it a 40-7 contest. Taylor capped the scoring with a 20-yard touchdown scamper 8:42 remaining in the contest.

GAME 11 AT WEST VIRGINIA STATE NOVEMBER 8 (L 24-31 OT; 1-10, 1-7)

In their final game of the season on, the Bobcat football team suffered a heart breaking overtime defeat at West Virginia State. In a hard fought, back and forth contest, it was the Yellow Jackets who came out on top when the dust settled, winning, 31-24.

Trailing 24-21 with 1:40 left in the game, the Bobcat offense took over at the 50-yard line following a Yellow Jacket punt. Wesleyan drove to Yellow Jacket eight-yard line with ten seconds left in the game, setting up a big goal attempt by Derek Moore. Moore's kick sailed through the uprights and Wesleyan sent the game into overtime tied at 24-24. On the first play of overtime, State's Michael Thompson took it in from 25-yards out and the Yellow Jackets regained the lead 31-24. The Bobcats went to the ground on their first overtime possession as Taylor picked up four yards to the 21-yard line. T.J. Benner's took a wide receiver reverse on the next play but was tracked down in the backfield for a 7-yard loss. Following an incomplete pass, Lorusso was intercepted on the game's final play to spoil Wesleyan's upset bid.

BOBCATS IN THE NFL HALL OF FAME

Clifford “Gip” Battles

A Phi Beta Kappa scholar and triple threat gridiron star at Wesleyan, Battles left his mark on the game of football. He played for Wesleyan when the Bobcats schedule featured several big universities. Battles graduated from Wesleyan as the school's all-time leading scorer. His most noted game was when he set the single game scoring record with 42 points in a 51-6 victory over Salem in 1931. In the win, Battles gained an incredible 378 all-purpose yards.

Battles spent six seasons in the NFL and racked up a total of 3,452 rushing yards. After the 1937 season, at the age of 28, he retired when the league salaries were frozen at $3,000. Battles traded in his position as the league career rushing leader for the position as the backfield coach at Columbia University. The new job gave Battles a 33 percent pay raise over his NFL salary.

Date of Birth - May 1, 1910

Birthplace - Akron, OH

Date of Death - April 28, 1981

High School - Kenmore (Akron, OH)

Induction Year - 1968

1932 and 1937 - Led the NFL in rushing

1933, 1936 and 1937 - All-NFL choice

1933 - First NFL player to rush for over 200 yards in a game

1937 - Scored three touchdowns in a division clinching win over the Giants

2000 - Named to Street and Smith Magazine's All-Century Professional Team

Earle “Greasy” Neale

A Wesleyan athlete from 1912-1914, Neale came back to the Bobcats two years later to coach from 1916 to 1917. Following his stay on the Wesleyan sideline, Neale took his talents to Major League Baseball. In 1919 and 1920 he was ranked in the National League in stolen bases as a member of the Cincinnati Reds. Neale played eight successful seasons in the Majors.

After hanging up his cleats, Neale re-entered the football coaching ranks. Both Washington and Jefferson University and the University of Virginia had the honor of his presence as head coach. He also served as backfield coach for Yale University.

Date of Birth - Nov. 5, 1891

Birthplace - Parkersburg, WV

Date of Death - Nov. 2, 1973

High School - Parkersburg (WV)

Induction Year - 1969

Neale's widespread college coaching career preceded his entry into the NFL in 1941. He quickly built the second-division Philadelphia Eagles into a contender. The legendary coach produced three straight Eastern Division crowns and two shut-out NFL Championships.

1919 - During the World Series, hit .357 for the Reds.

1919 and 1920 - Finished fifth in stolen bases in the National League

1948 and 1949 - Coached his team to the NFL championships

Leonard “Feets” Barnum (1932-1935)

Barnum was an All-WVIAC selection during the 1933, 1934, and 1935 seasons. In 1936 he was the 12th player selected in the initial NFL Draft. The Parkersburg native was a second round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Barnum then played for the New York Giants for three years, which included the 1938 NFL Championship team. In 1941 and 1942 Barnum took the field for the Philadelphia Eagles before a tour of duty in the military ended his NFL career. During his professional career, Barnum played quarterback, defensive back, kicker, and punter. He recorded a 43.5 yard punting average in 1941, which is still the third best mark in Eagles history. In 1942 he notched a 42.1 yard punting average.

Kenneth Moore (1935-1938)

Moore was an All-WVIAC selection in 1937 and 1938. He was a teammate of Barnum's on the New York Giants team of 1940 under head coach Steve Owen. Moore played center during his one and only NFL season.

Richard Thomaselli (1975-1978)

Upon graduating as the lead blocker for Wesleyan's all-time leading rusher, Thomaselli was signed as a free agent with the Houston Oilers. At his first camp, Thomaselli made it to the final cut day before the Oilers decided to go with a different back. A few days later, Rich was asked back by popular demand when an injury elsewhere on the team left a vacant spot. Many of the Houston players liked his work ethic, so they pushed management to bring him back. Thomaselli spent his time with the Oilers blocking for Hall of Famer Ear Campbell. After leaving Houston, Thomaselli finished his career in Canada playing for the Montreal Allouettes. He still ranks as the twelfth leading rusher in Bobcat history with 1,479 yards.

Larry Coffey (1977-1980)

Coffey ended his career as the all-time leading rusher in Wesleyan history. A native of Florida, he re-wrote the record books at Wesleyan by rushing for 3,053 yards and 23 touchdowns as a Bobcat. Upon graduation, Coffey was signed as a free agent by the Pittsburgh Steelers. After spending camp with the Steelers, he was released, but caught on with the New York Giants. He found himself competing with fellow rookie Joe Morris for a spot on the roster. Morris eventually won the spot, but Coffey later signed with the New Jersey Generals of the USFL. He was slated to be the starter until the Generals signed a running back by the name of Herschel Walker. Coffey spent most of his tenure with the Generals splitting time with Walker.

Sheldon “Moe” Cooper (1994-1996)

“Moe” ended his career at Wesleyan trailing only Larry Coffey on the all-time rushing list. Throughout his four years at Wesleyan, Cooper compiled a 5.1 yards per carry average and scored 29 touchdowns. After graduation, the Bronx, New York native headed back home to play for the New York City Hawks of the Arena Football League. From there Cooper moved to Cincinnati where he kept in shape while working with troubled kids. He caught another break with the Roanoke team from the Arena2 Football League. In his season with Roanoke, “Moe” led the team in return yardage and finished second in tackles.

Scott Gasper (1994-1998)

Gasper was the wide receivers coach at Wesleyan during the 2000 season and the quarterbacks coach in 1999. In 1998 he led the Orebro Black Knights of Sweden to the European National Championship game and earned MVP honors in the contest. He also had a stint as the wide receivers coach for the Swedish National team which placed third in the World Cup of American Football. The Medina, Ohio native was a member of the 2001 Carolina Rhinos of the Arena2 Football League. At Carolina, he was a backup quarterback before moving to the Rochester Brigade where he saw significant playing time as the starting signal caller. While at Wesleyan, Gasper was twice named to the All-WVIAC First Team. He currently holds four Bobcat passing records.

Alan Krutulis (2001-2002, 2004)

In just three years as a Bobcat, Krutulis racked up 220 tackles, good for 11th in school history. He was an integral part of Wesleyan’s 2002 WVIAC championship squad, and was a two-time All-WVIAC selection. Krutulis, along with teammate Zack Condo, was a member of Arena Football 2’s Oklahoma City Yard Dawgz in 2006-2007. In his two years with the Yard Dawgz, Krutulis ran for 63 yards on 13 attempts and scored two touchdowns. He also caught 15 passes for 131 yards. He is currently a member of the Grand Rapids Rampage of the Arena Football League as a fullback.

Zack Condo (2002-2005)

Condo finished his Wesleyan career in 2005 ranked sixth in tackles (277) and tied for 11th in sacks (12). Condo was a member of two WVIAC championship squads as a Bobcat and a three time All-WVIAC performer. The 6’4”, 270 pound Condo made the roster of the Arena Football League 2’s Oklahoma City Yardz in 2007 as an offensive and defensive lineman. He is a current member of the Bossier-Shreveport Battlewings as a lineman.

T.R. Dues (2003-2005)

After giving WVIAC opponents nightmares for three years as a versatile offensive weapon, Dues moved on to the Continental Indoor Football League’s Steubenville Stampede in 2007. Playing wide receiver, Dues led the Stampede in receptions (33), receiving yards (609), receiving touchdowns (13), scoring (15 total TD’s; 90 points) and all-purpose yards (976) through six games. At Wesleyan, Dues ranked first in all-purpose yards (4,402) and third in total return yards (1,490), helping Wesleyan to the 2003 WVIAC crown.
